13107.

(a) With the exception of candidates for Justice of the State Supreme Court or Court of Appeal, immediately under the name of each candidate, and not separated from the name by any line, unless the designation made by the candidate pursuant to Section 8002.5 must be listed immediately below the name of the candidate pursuant to Section 13105, and in that case immediately under the designation, may appear at the option of the candidate only one of the following designations:

(1) Words designating the elective city, county, district, state, or federal office which the candidate holds at the time of filing the nomination documents to which he or she was elected by vote of the people, or to which he or she was appointed, in the case of a superior court judge.

(2) The word "incumbent" if the candidate is a candidate for the same office which he or she holds at the time of filing the nomination papers, and was elected to that office by a vote of the people, or, in the case of a superior court judge, was appointed to that office.

(3) No more than three words designating either the current principal professions, vocations, or occupations of the candidate, or the principal professions, vocations, or occupations of the candidate during the calendar year immediately preceding the filing of nomination documents. For purposes of this section, all California geographical names shall be considered to be one word. Hyphenated words that appear in any generally available standard reference dictionary, published in the United States at any time within the 10 calendar years immediately preceding the election for which the words are counted, shall be considered as one word. Each part of all other hyphenated words shall be counted as a separate word.

(4) The phrase "appointed incumbent" if the candidate holds an office other than a judicial office by virtue of appointment, and the candidate is a candidate for election to the same office, or, if the candidate is a candidate for election to the same office or to some other office, the word "appointed" and the title of the office. In either instance, the candidate may not use the unmodified word "incumbent" or any words designating the office unmodified by the word "appointed." However, the phrase "appointed incumbent" shall not be required of a candidate who seeks reelection to an office which he or she holds and to which he or she was appointed, as a nominated candidate, in lieu of an election, pursuant to Sections 5326 and 5328 of the Education Code or Section 7228, 7423, 7673, 10229, or 10515 of this code.

(b) Neither the Secretary of State nor any other elections official shall accept a designation of which any of the following would be true:

(1) It would mislead the voter.

(2) It would suggest an evaluation of a candidate, such as outstanding, leading, expert, virtuous, or eminent.

(3) It abbreviates the word "retired" or places it following any word or words which it modifies.

(4) It uses a word or prefix, such as "former" or "ex-," which means a prior status. The only exception is the use of the word "retired."

(5) It uses the name of any political party, whether or not it has qualified for the ballot.

(6) It uses a word or words referring to a racial, religious, or ethnic group.

(7) It refers to any activity prohibited by law.

(c) If, upon checking the nomination documents and the ballot designation worksheet described in Section 13107.3, the elections official finds the designation to be in violation of any of the restrictions set forth in this section, the elections official shall notify the candidate by registered or certified mail return receipt requested, addressed to the mailing address provided on the candidate's ballot designation worksheet.

(1) The candidate shall, within three days, excluding Saturday, Sunday, and state holidays, from the date he or she receives notice by registered or certified mail, or from the date the candidate receives actual notice of the violation, whichever occurs first, appear before the elections official or, in the case of the Secretary of State, notify the Secretary of State by telephone, and provide a designation that complies with subdivision (a).

(2) In the event the candidate fails to provide a designation that complies with subdivision (a) within the three-day period specified in paragraph (1), no designation shall appear after the candidate's name.

(d) No designation given by a candidate shall be changed by the candidate after the final date for filing nomination documents, except as specifically requested by the elections official as specified in subdivision (c) or as provided in subdivision (e). The elections official shall maintain a copy of the ballot designation worksheet for each candidate that appears on the ballot in the county for the same period of time as applied to nomination documents pursuant to Section 17100.

(e) The designation shall remain the same for all purposes of both primary and general elections, unless the candidate, at least 98 days prior to the general election, requests in writing a different designation which the candidate is entitled to use at the time of the request.

(b) The ballot designation worksheet shall be filed with the elections official at the same time that the candidate files his or her declaration of candidacy.

(c) In the event that a candidate fails to file a ballot designation worksheet in accordance with subdivision (a), no designation shall appear under the candidate's name on the ballot.

For your reference, Elections Code section 13107.5 is reproduced below:

(1) A candidate's community volunteer activities constitute his or her principal profession, vocation, or occupation.

Dear Candidate or Committee Member:

As a candidate or campaign worker for either office or a ballot measure, this reminder about State law governing campaign signs should be helpful to you.

A Temporary Political Sign meets the following criteria:

- A. Encourages a particular vote in a scheduled election.
- B. Is placed no sooner than 90 days prior to the scheduled election and is removed within 10 days after that election.
- C. Is no larger than 32 square feet.
- D. Has had a Statement of Responsibility filed with the Department certifying a person who will be responsible for removing the sign (Attached).

A completed Statement of Responsibility must be submitted to:

Division of Traffic Operations
Outdoor Advertising Program
P.O. Box 942874, MS-36
Sacramento, CA 94274-0001

Temporary Political Signs shall not be placed within the right-of-way of any highway, or be visible within 660 feet from the edge of the right-of-way of a classified "Landscaped freeway".

State law directs the Department of Transportation to remove unauthorized Temporary Political Signs and bill the responsible party for their removal. We are calling these provisions to your attention to avoid possible embarrassment or inconvenience to you and your supporters. Please share this information with those assisting in your campaign.

Should you have any questions, comments or need additional information, please call (916) 654-6473.

DISCLOSURE

FAIR POLITICAL PRACTICES COMMISSION

CAMPAIGN DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS

SECTION 1 – FPPC-HOW TO AVOID MOST COMMON MISTAKES

SECTION 2 – WHO AND WHERE TO FILE AND FILING DEADLINES

SECTION 3 – BASIC INFORMATION re FPPC FORMS

SECTION 4 – IMPORTANT THINGS TO REMEMBER

SECTION 1 – HOW TO AVOID THE MOST COMMON MISTAKES By Karen Getman, California Fair Political Practices Commission

1. Open a campaign bank account immediately, and use the account for ALL campaign expenses. A common scenario is that Candidate Jan, running in her first campaign for public office, uses her own money to pay for flyers announcing a fundraiser. She gets a receipt, fully intending to seek reimbursement from here campaign funds. But Jane unwittingly has violated state law. It is fine to use your own funds to pay the costs of running for office, but the money first must be deposited in a bank account set up solely for campaign purposes, and then withdrawn to pay campaign expenses (the only exception is for certain candidate filing fees). Although this may sound like an unnecessary and rigid rule, it serves an important purpose. By requiring that all campaign funds go through a single bank account, we can ensure full and accurate reporting of ALL campaign contributions and expenditures.
2. Learn the basic rules governing contributions-and follow them. Many first-time candidates rely solely on their advisors to inform them about the rules on raising and spending money, then plead ignorance when accused of a campaign violation. Don't place your political future in the hands of others. Memorize and strictly adhere to the basic rules:

- a. No cash contributions or expenditures of $100 or more
 - b. No anonymous contributions of $100 or more
 - c. Get the name, address and employer of all who contribute $25 or more
 - d. Keep copies all contributions and expenditure receipts
 - e. No personal use of campaign funds
3. Insist that your campaign treasurer learn the rules and keep accurate, adequate records. Many first-time candidates use volunteers as their campaign treasurers. When I was in private practice, one client said to me, "My wife balances the checkbook. I'm sure she can do this!" He later was shocked to discover that he had submitted woefully inadequate campaign reports, resulting in thousands of dollars in fines. It's okay to use your spouse, best friend, or tax accountant as your treasurer, but insist that they read the FPPC campaign reporting manuals, attend an FPPC training seminar, and make frequent use of our free telephone advice line. You wouldn't let your Aunt Ida file your business tax returns without prior experience; don't let her file your campaign reports without becoming familiar with law.
4. Know which events trigger special, more complicated rules. In addition to knowing the basic rules yourself, make sure you understand what types of events trigger more complicated rules so you will know when to ask for help. Some of the more common include:
- a. Mailing more than 200 pieces of campaign literature
 - b. Written solicitations for campaign contributions
 - c. Having a fund-raiser at someone's home
 - d. Receiving $5,000 or more from a single contributor
 - e. Contributions made by money order or cashier's check
 - f. In-kind contributions (e.g. personal services, free printing, etc.)
 - g. Payments made by your consultant, printer, etc. to other vendors on your behalf
 - h. Using campaign money for tickets, automobile expenses or clothing
5. Know any special rules imposed by local campaign finance laws. Candidates in certain areas have to abide by special local rules.
6. Know the deadlines for filing campaign reports, and comply with them. From the start of your campaign, you should know all of the deadlines for filing campaign reports. Excuses such as "I was out of town and couldn't sign the report," or "I didn't know it had to be received by that date, so I mailed it," may prompt fines, not sympathy. Go to <http://www.fppc.ca.gov/>, Campaign Filing Deadlines.
7. Be especially vigilant with late contribution reports. During the last 16 days before an election, you are required to notify your filing offices about contributions of $1,000 or more from a single source within 24 hours of receipt. Because late contributions can help turn an election, the public must be notified of them immediately. The FPPC reacts very harshly to candidates, even first-time candidates, who fail to file late-contribution reports on time.
8. Don't be too quick to close your campaign bank account or terminate your committee. Candidates who lose often want to close their accounts quickly and put the experience behind them. But sometimes there is an audit, a late bill they forgot to pay, or an unexpected refund. If you have prematurely terminated your bank account and committee, these small items can become a big headache. And successful candidates can use leftover campaign funds for officeholder expenses.

Don't be discouraged by the complexity of the campaign finance rules. We are trying to make them easier. In the meantime, call us for help at (916) 322-5660 or look at our webpage www.fppc.ca.gov for helpful information on campaign disclosure.
